

Name: _____

Use the clues below to test your observation skills. Good Luck!

Across

3. Foam in water can be natural or the result of _____.

4. Surfaces that do not allow rain water to soak in are _____.

7. Oftentimes streams are modified into concrete _____ to prevent flooding.

8. Bare soil and collapsed trees are signs of _____.

10. By observing _____ before monitoring, we can explain some measurements.

11. The presence of diverse _____ is an indicator of clean water.

12. Stream banks with artificial coverings are designed to prevent erosion, but do not create a good _____.

15. Green water may be a sign of an _____ (2 words)

18. When sediment falls into the stream, it can smother creatures living on the _____ (2 words)

19. When too much water runs off paved surfaces into the stream, the stream may become _____.

20. Tracing waterbodies to their _____ reveals what may have polluted the water upstream.

Down

1. Insects and other small organisms such as clams, mussels, snails, worms, and crayfish are _____.

2. Rocks in streams have a _____ affect on macroinvertebrate populations.

5. Pesticide pollution might be due to _____ neighboring the waterbody.

6. Trees and vegetation provide _____ from pollutants.

9. Colorful reflections in water are a sign of _____.

13. _____ never belongs in a waterbody.

14. A strong _____ may indicate sewage pollution.

16. Bushes alongside waterbodies create a _____ area.

17. Orange water may be a sign of nearby _____.

