Residential Plan Review

I, _____, understand that the Plan Review for this building or structure has not been reviewed or approved for North Carolina Building Code Compliance. I understand that I am responsible, as the permit holder, to ensure that all construction meets the current North Carolina Building Code. I understand that I am responsible for any code violations that may be discovered during inspections that result in any changes that may require reconstruction.

If you have any questions concerning the North Carolina Building Code, please contact the Permit Center at 704-282-4524 to schedule an appointment with an inspector.
